Affirmations for Financial Healing

I wrote the following affirmations to assist in your financial healing process. We are living in times of great change, and many people feel anxious about their financial future. These affirmations are based on the 12 truths in my book The Money Matrix.

By saying affirmations regularly, you are re-programming not only your conscious mind, but your subconscious mind – and that's where the power is. I suggest saying these affirmations daily for five weeks. Change must begin within before it can happen "out there" in our lives.
