The Universal Laws

The Universe is built upon a framework of Universal Laws. These Laws have been written about and spoken about for thousands of years in the form of story-telling and metaphor, such as Biblical stories, and the teachings of Buddhism, the Kabbalah and the Freemasons.

These Laws are consistently aligned with peace, love and Divine truth. And they are the framework of the Universe. They cannot be negotiated or changed. So if we are to live our best lives, we must align our thoughts, words and actions with these Laws. If we don't, life will be a struggle and happiness will evade us.

Right now, the world is going through massive changes, and now more than ever, we are being pushed to align with these Laws. Where we are not aligned with these Laws, our lives will become more and more difficult.

A Little Bit of History...

I suspect that some of these laws you may already know, such as the Universal Law of Attraction, whereby the more you think, visualise and feel you have something, the more you draw it to you. This Law was kept a secret throughout the past few millennia, known by certain groups and powerful people, but not the general populace, for reasons both good and bad. A good reason it was withheld was that anyone can use this law, and so if the knowledge came into the wrong hands, it could be misused to the detriment of the world. Alas it has been and Adolf Hitler is an example of this.

The Law of Attraction was also withheld for negative reasons. Those in power - royalty, aristocracy, business and political figures as well as the Catholic Church - wanted to maintain power and control. They withheld this valuable information so that they could maintain power and control over those without the knowledge, and use them for their own purposes.

The Law of Attraction has been written about over the centuries, mostly in coded form. It became well-known after the release of the popular book "The Secret" by Rhonda Byrne, and further explored in the book "Ask and It Is Given" by Esther Hicks. These books and many more came about when humanity was ready for them, and while they have opened us up to the knowledge that we have the potential to become powerful creators, they are not the full story. In fact, the old saying “a little knowledge is a dangerous thing” is certainly true in this case.

Knowing solely about the Law of Attraction has created just as much unhappiness as it has created happiness, because there are other important Universal Laws to know and utilise if we are to create the life we want and find true happiness. Focussing only on the Law of Attraction is like consuming only one particular food instead of a whole balanced meal. You may gain in one way, but you will suffer in others.

The majority of human beings are working against many of these laws, because we have been programmed to believe in fear and lack. When we are working against these laws, we are working against love and against the Universe and so we deem ourselves powerless. But when we know about these laws, understand them and work with them, we have the Universe on our side and we step into our true power.

There are many Universal Laws, and in this book, I would like to share with you seven key Universal Laws that have the power to change your life and bring you more peace, love, abundance and happiness.

When we know
about these laws,
understand them and
work with them, we have the Universe on our side and we step into our true power

Law 1: The Law of Abundance

You have within yourself everything required to make your earthly incarnation a paradise if you choose to accept the truth that abundance is your divine birth-right. We currently live in a Universe of abundance, although the majority of those populating our planet currently view it as a Universe of scarcity.

This is because we have been conditioned to believe in a world of lack. This conditioning that is held in our mind, body and spirit continues to create a reality of lack for the majority of people.

We are constantly being fed messages of scarcity by the media, the Government and the world in general. Even those we love may be asleep to this law.

Unless we are awake and aware of this Universal Law of Abundance, we will continue to live our lives asleep, because our DNA contains the imprints of our ancestors' lives of hardship, struggle and trauma. Most people are still in an unawakened state and disconnected from the Universal Source.

This Universal Source IS the source of all that we require to live an abundant life. In the unawakened state, we are attached to the earthly means of gaining our abundance - we do not trust that we will be provided for by a loving Universe; instead, we become overly attached to HOW and from WHERE the money comes and abundance flows. We believe that our job or our investment or our spouse is the source of our abundance. The Truth is that they are just a channel through which the Source sends you your current abundance. If a channel of abundance is taken away from us, such as losing our job, the unawakened self automatically falls into fear and struggle, because we don't trust that the Divine Source will provide for us.

In acknowledging and accepting the Universal Law of Abundance, we have no need to go into fear, for when one channel closes, we know that another channel opens. However if we are unaware of this law, we will be unlikely to see another channel open.

No matter what our circumstances, we each have the power within ourselves to create an abundant life. We just need to start where we are, and trust in the process. It is the BELIEF that abundance is our Divine Right that creates our abundance, but if there is no belief in this Law, we are bound to remain in fear, lack and struggle.

We each have the power within ourselves to create an abundant life. We just need to start where we are, and trust in the process.

Law 2: The Law of Action

Action is necessary if we wish to create our desires because we are human and living on the physical plane. Thinking, feeling and talking about something isn't enough. That's wishful thinking. When we take action towards what we want, The Divine Source takes us seriously and will support and help us. This is because we are Co-Creators.

We work with the Source and it works with us. Taking action shows the Source that we are committed to our intention, and so it commits with us. Taking action that is in alignment to our intention is highly important. If we take action that moves AWAY FROM and NOT TOWARDS our intention, then we are giving the Source confusing messages and no good will come from our actions.

Actions taken out of love will always work in our favour, but actions taken out of fear will ultimately not manifest any good for us. The vibration of love includes feelings such as inspiration, excitement, joy, peace and kindness. The vibration of fear includes feelings such as anxiety, worry, sadness, desperation and despair.

So become aware from which vibration you are choosing to act from, and always choose love.

Actions do not ever need to be frantic, urgent or fearful. If you are taking action while feeling this way, it is not Divinely Right Action and not a reflection of your True Self. These actions will not bring about fulfilling outcomes. All actions which are peaceful, inspired and loving are Divinely Right Actions and will ultimately bring about fulfilling outcomes.

Law 3: The Law of Challenges

The Universal Law of Challenges deems that we WILL be sent challenges throughout our lives. Why? Because we are here to transform and grow, and we will only transform and grow through challenges.

By being faced with a challenge and seeking resolution, we learn valuable lessons and grow in wisdom. Most people react to problems and challenges with the attitude of “Why me?,” “This isn’t supposed to happen,” “This isn’t fair” or “There must be something wrong with me or my life if I’m experiencing this challenge.” None of this is true! In fact quite the opposite is true.

Every challenge is in your life for a valuable reason. It is there so that you can let go of old conditioning or wounding and therefore grow into a higher and lighter version of yourself. This is highly necessary if you wish to become the powerful creator you are here to be. Just because you experience certain challenges doesn’t mean there is anything wrong with you or your life. Every challenge is perfect, and appears exactly when you need it.

And every challenge was chosen by you at a soul level for you to experience this lifetime for your growth and evolution.

Life is a blend of both pleasant and desired experiences and challenging experiences, because we are here to enjoy life and also here to grow.

Law 4: The Law of Acceptance

Acceptance is the key if we are to live a happy and peaceful life and continue to move towards our dreams. This is because that which we accept has the power to change, but that which we resist persists. Challenges are inbuilt into every life, so we must accept them. That way we work with them, and not against them.

By accepting everything that happens to us, whether we judge it as positive or negative, good or bad, we acknowledge it is all in our highest good, given to us by a loving Universe. The negatives are for our growth and learning, the positives are our rewards of good karma.

Whether we resist a problem, a situation, a person, a thought or a feeling, resistance creates a constant internal battle. And in this state we cannot be in the vibration of peace and clarity. The vibration of peace is the fertile soil from which your dreams will grow. Nothing can grow in the infertile soil of internal conflict.

And so we must accept that difficult situations and people are in our lives for a reason. Do not confuse acceptance with having a victim mentality. Acceptance means that we accept the person and situation and that we have the power within us to respond to the situation from an empowered place. A victim mentality is choosing to feel disempowered and not doing anything to change the situation.

Accepting a difficulty as if we have chosen it does not mean that we cannot take action and do something about it. Of course we can, but by taking action from the vibration of acceptance, we are likely to choose Divine Right Action.

We must also learn to accept our feelings because they are our truth in the present moment. We can acknowledge a feeling by feeling it. Feelings are energy - they pass through us. Whatever we acknowledge will move on. If we refuse to accept a difficult feeling, we push it down and repress it, and so it remains within our energy field. Repressed feelings over time can manifest as depression or illness.

And we must accept our thoughts too. Thoughts are energy forms. There is only ever the loving thought or the fearful thought. Loving thoughts are real; fearful thoughts are not. By acknowledging thoughts and questioning them as to whether they are truthful or just a fearful energy form, we have the power to identify with thoughts that serve us, and let go of those that don't.

Acceptance means that we accept the person and situation and that we have the power within us to respond to the situation from an empowered place.

Law 5: The Law of Surrender

Surrender is the most powerful choice there is in any situation. Whether you are wishing to manifest something or you have a problem you cannot solve or a question that needs answering, the act of surrender is the way. This is because The Divine Source is a Divine Matrix of Intelligence that knows ALL.

It knows you far better than you know yourself. It knows what will truly fulfill you. It knows the best and most Divinely right way to manifest what it is you desire and the best and most Divinely right way to resolve a problem.

Rarely do our dreams manifest in the way we think they are going to. Rarely does a problem get resolved in the way we think it should. And sometimes even the very thing we have wanted to manifest doesn't manifest.

Why? Because The Source knows what will truly fulfill you, and so by surrendering your desire to the Source, you detach and let go and have faith that what comes to you is Divinely right, because it will be!

As human beings we can get very attached to the HOW, the WHO, the WHERE and the WHAT. And so often we get it wrong. Our intelligence is limited. The Divine Intelligence is unlimited.

When we surrender, we defer to the True Power and all will be well. The more we surrender and are shown Divinely right outcomes, the more we build our trust in a loving and supportive Universe, and so the more willing we are to continue to surrender to the Divine Source.

Law 6: The Law of Gestation (or Divine Timing)

Even though most of us believe that we can choose the timing of things, The Universe is ultimately in charge of the timing of everything. This is why sometimes, no matter how hard we work or strive for a particular outcome to happen by a particular time, it doesn't.

So often we strive and push and force and stress and worry because we have become attached to the timing of something. We want it to happen in OUR time, which may be sooner than is truly in our highest good.

The Universe knows the best possible timing of everything even if our limited mind does not agree!

If our idea of timing is in alignment with what the Universe wants for us, we are likely to manifest what we want when we want it. If however, our idea of timing is not in accordance with the Divine timing of the Universe, we may not manifest what we want when we want it.

So while it is absolutely fine to have an idea of when you want to have achieved something, it's important to adhere with this Universal Law and trust that things will manifest when they are meant to manifest and not a moment before or after. Just like a rose blooms or a seed germinates, there is an organic process to the manifestation of everything and it is perfect.

Time is not the set plane that we think it is. Time is elastic and it is affected by our vibration. If we believe in a lack of time, we will be saying regularly "I don't have enough time." We will find ourselves battling against time and finding there is "not enough hours in a day." The truth is that there is enough time to do ALL that is in your highest good this lifetime.

Many people create “false timelines” - trying to achieve too much in a set period of time which only creates a low vibration of anxiety and worry, which creates an evermore lack of time, because time contracts in the vibration of fear. When we feel loving feelings such as peace, inspiration, joy, excitement and optimism, we will often find that we have enough time, in fact we may be amazed at how much we can achieve in a short period of time, because time expands in the vibration of love.

When we understand that there is a “time for everything under heaven,” we let go of our old fearful relationship with time. We relax and allow the Source to be in charge.

The Universe knows
the best possible
timing of everything
even if our limited mind
does not agree

Law 7: The Law of Least Resistance

We have been conditioned to believe that we must strive and struggle to obtain the things we want. Many of us believe that we are supposed to “battle through life” and that “life is an uphill climb.” It is not surprising if we still think this way - we are taught to “work hard and strive” at school, and to “climb the ladder of success.”

Our ancestors, in their unawakened and blinkered state, experienced lives of hardship and struggle, and these imprints are still present in our DNA, and so this programming still runs within us until we wake up and embrace this powerful Universal Law.

If you see grass growing, it doesn't try to grow; it just grows. Water doesn't try to flow; it just flows. This is the way we are meant to go about things, so when we take action, we don't need to force or push or struggle. We simply do what we need to do each day. If we come across a problem, we breathe, we relax, and we look for the easiest and simplest way to resolve it. Sometimes we can't resolve it; sometimes we need to focus on something else for a while and then it resolves itself. And sometimes, we may need to use the Universal Law of Surrender and allow the Divine Intelligence to take over.

Do not confuse the path of least resistance with the path of temptation. The path of temptation is the path of least resistance combined with unconscious action. The path of least resistance requires that we utilise the Law of Action. Stay aligned to your highest intentions and choose Divine Right Action, but choose the path of least resistance to get there.

We are not here to live in a state of struggle. We are here to emulate the Divine Intelligence. We are here to connect to the Universal Flow and to co-create the life we want in a loving and peaceful manner through:

- The knowledge that we have the power within us to create our own earthly paradise
- Choosing loving and inspired action
- Understanding that challenges are an important part of our journey
- Accepting everything that happens to us, both positive and negative
- Surrendering our desires and our problems to the Divine Intelligence for orchestration
- Letting go of our attachment to timing
- Taking the path of least resistance.

These are just seven of 20 Universal Laws that I teach in my online course Reset to Love, Peace and Abundance in Challenging Times.

Now is the Time!
